

No	Activity	Hazard	Person(s) in Danger	Control Measures	Residual Risk Rating
14	Working in the vicinity of level crossings	Level Crossings Contact with / disruption to trains and other vehicular traffic	Employees, other contractors and public	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Only work in accordance with the current Safety at Street Works and Road Works manual "Red-Book" is to be undertaken. - No work to commence until written permission has been received from the railway authorities. - Safe system of work must be in place prior to commencement of work. - Risk assessments must be carried out both before and during works at or near to level crossings. (In compliance with information from Railway Authorities). - Seek guidance from Rail Authority to ensure electronic pipe and cable location equipment does not interfere with railway signalling apparatus. - Urgent works at a level crossing requires two hours advance notice. Contact the Local Authority and Rail Authority to obtain the necessary permissions. It is vital that work is not commenced until assurance has been received that all the necessary safety precautions are in place. - If using cranes and working within 15 metres of rail line the Rail Authority must be contacted. 	Low